Building Committee: no report

Fire Department report: Been busy the last month at 20 calls, they have two potential members, have some training coming up

LOSA: LOSA papers were given to board, Chairman will need to sign and have paper notarized

Cemetery update: no discussion, Karmen asked if she should move the budget money for 2025 consensus of board was yes

Library update: The library is celebrating Penguin Awareness Day in January with a display of penguin related materials as well as a skiing penguin take 'n make activity kit.

Due to the popularity of take 'n make activity kits and the unpredictable winter weather; projects kits will continue in February with plans being made for the return of larger in-person events resuming in March.

Progress is being made on the 2025 Summer Library Program Color Your World. Park events have all been scheduled, custom booklets created, and individual age group activities and challenges are being finalized.

The 1000 Books Before Kindergarten and 1000 Books Challenge for older students continue to be popular with several participants having completed 600 books!

The 2025 Book Lottery Scratch Off Reading Challenge has begun. This 12-month reading program is open to all ages with participants having the opportunity to be entered into a year-end prize drawing.

While collecting data for the annual report, it was noted that both November and December had the highest number of patron visits since 2018.

The Director will be attending the Wild Wisconsin Winter Web Conference to gather information and meet continuing education requirements.
