- Library update: The library completed another successful summer program on July 29. This year's seven-week Color Your World program, consisting of 75 participants, offered seven large park events as well as weekly activities and challenges for all age groups including teens and adults. The finale picnic was especially enjoyable with Library Board President, Tiffany Draeger joining the Director in celebratory games. Plans have now begun for the 2026 Dinosaur themed Read, Roar, Explore! Summer program. Due to the popularity of children's graphic novels, the library will be purchasing additional shelving to hold the growing collection. Programming possibilities are being explored for September 2025 – May 2026. The library would like to thank Trustee Melissa Hardinger for her years of service and recommend Deb Haupt for Town Board approval as her replacement.
